IC-2019-14

TO: BOX Options Participants
FROM: BOX Market Operations Center
SUBJECT: Market Simulation for New Disaster Recovery Site
DATE: June 4, 2019

On July 29th, 2019 BOX Exchange LLC ("BOX" or the "Exchange") will be moving its Disaster Recovery site from Toronto to Chicago (Equinix CH1).

To precede the move, BOX will host a Market Simulation ("Simulation") on Saturday, July 13, 2019.

Participants interested in joining the Simulation must confirm their participation with BOX Market Operation Center (MOC).

Simulation Details:

- Connection via the Chicago POP (350 East Cermak – CH1) is required as the NY4-Equinix POP will not be available for the Simulation.
- The Simulation will take place in the BOX Disaster Recovery environment.
- Network or configuration changes will not be necessary. The same IP addresses, port numbers and Logins/IDs will be used and Participants will be able to connect to their normal BOX services.
- Participants joining the Simulation will be able to send orders or quotes; but must only send Day Orders.
- All trades done during the Simulation will be cancelled by the MOC at the end of trading. No trades will be sent to OCC.
- All listed instruments will be available for trading during the Simulation.
- The Simulation schedule will be as follows:

Schedule	Activity
10:00 a.m. ET	Physical and logical connection to BOX services (FIX, SAIL, HSVF, ATR, FTP Server and TMS)
10:00 a.m. ET to 10:30 a.m. ET	Pre-opening period. Participants can send orders (Day only) and quotes.
10:30 a.m. ET to 12:00 p.m. ET	Trading period starts. Participants can send orders (Day only) and quotes.
12:00 p.m. ET	Market simulation ends. BOX MOC cancels all trades done during the Simulation.
